about the njo

"Proof positive that jazz isn't just a New York or New Orleans or Chicago or Kansas City thing." - Jazz Times

The Nebraska Jazz Orchestra (NJO) was founded in 1975 and is one of the Midwest's premier big bands, celebrating over 35 years of great performances. The NJO has toured Europe twice including a 1997 performance at the prestigious Montreux International Jazz Festival in Montreux, Switzerland.

In 2006, the NJO was featured in an NET documentary, "Hard Times Swing." The NJO performed live for this documentary that followed the development of territory swing bands that changed American pop culture. The NJO was also awarded the 2007 Mayor's Arts Award for Artistic Achievement in the Performing Arts. This honor recognizes the exceptional efforts made by NJO to nurture and advance the art of jazz music in Lincoln.

jazz & foundation club

Your membership in the Jazz Club or the Foundation Club will help promote our organization, build our audience and continue the great tradition of big band jazz in Lincoln.

In addition to its annual concert series in Lincoln, touring concerts, special events and recording productions, the Nebraska Jazz Orchestra sponsors the annual Young Jazz Artist Competition, Young Lions All-Star Band, Jazz Goes to School, and the annual Nebraska Jazz Camp. With your support, the NJO will continue to bring great performances and its educational outreach programs to Nebraska audiences.
