PERFORM WITH THE LINCOLN MUNICIPAL BAND

Formed over 100 years ago, the Lincoln Municipal Band is not only the oldest professional music ensemble in the state, but the only one of its kind. The Lincoln Municipal Band performs a series of free concerts each summer at Antelope Park featuring music from classic and contemporary films, marches, and traditional concert band music.

The annual Young Artist award is named in honor of John Shildneck, a longtime conductor of the band. Each year, one exceptional young musician is chosen by audition to perform as the featured soloist with the Lincoln Municipal Band at its first summer concert in July.

RULES, GUIDELINES & ELIGIBILITY

- Open to the following instruments: Woodwinds, Brass, Percussion, Strings, and Voice.
- Candidates must be a resident of Nebraska or currently studying with a Nebraska teacher.
- Applicants should be advised that their choice of literature may impact the results of the competition.
